

COMANDOS NSLOOKUP

1.NSLOOKUP

◈ Consulta la IP de un dominio

```
C:\Windows\System32>nslookup google.com
```

```
Servidor:  dns.google
```

```
Address:  8.8.8.8
```

```
Nombre:    google.com
```

```
Addresses: 142.250.190.14
```

```
           142.250.190.206
```

2. NSLOOKUP IP

◆ Consulta el nombre de host asociado a esa IP

```
C:\Windows\System32>nslookup 8.8.8.8
```

```
Servidor:  dns.google
```

```
Address:  8.8.8.8
```

```
Nombre:    dns.google
```

```
Address:  8.8.8.8
```

3. Abre modo interactivo de nslookup

◆ Abre modo interactivo de nslookup

```
C:\Windows\System32>nslookup
```

```
> google.com
```

```
Servidor:  dns.google
```

```
Address:  8.8.8.8
```

” Preguntar a ChatGPT

```
Nombre:    google.com
```

```
Addresses: 142.250.190.14
```

```
           142.250.190.206
```

```
> set type=MX
```

```
> google.com
```

```
Servidor:  dns.google
```

```
Address:  8.8.8.8
```

```
google.com  MX preference = 30, mail exchanger = alt3.aspmx.1.google.com
```

```
google.com  MX preference = 10, mail exchanger = aspmx.1.google.com
```

4. server DNS

◆ Cambia el servidor DNS en modo interactivo

```
> server 1.1.1.1
Servidor predeterminado cambiado a 1.1.1.1
> google.com
Servidor:  one.one.one.one
Address:  1.1.1.1

Nombre:    google.com
Addresses: 142.250.190.14
           142.250.190.206
```